

Application form

ST1_en_020113

Application for a residence and work permit for students incl. PhD students

Uses

This form is to be used when applying for a Danish residence and work permit as a student.

Residence and work permits can be issued to persons accepted at the following types of studies:

- Higher educational programmes
- Preparatory higher educational programme
- Basic and youth study programmes
- Folk high schools

The form can also be used if the applicant is a PhD student, meaning that he/she is not employed and do not receive salary from the research institute in Denmark. If the applicant is an employed PhD, form AR1 is to be used.

When applying for a residence and work permit as a student, the Danish educational institution (the university/school) and the applicant (the student) are each required to fill out separate parts of the form. The applicant must also provide certain documentation.

How to apply

1. The educational institution completes part 2 (sections 10-14) and signs in section 15 (following the instructions given).
2. After completing part 2, the educational institution sends the form to the applicant (the student).
3. The applicant completes part 1 (sections 0-7) and signs in section 9 (following the instructions given).
4. The applicant includes the required documentation. (see below).
5. The applicant submits the application at a Danish diplomatic mission in his/her country of residence. If the applicant is a legal resident of Denmark, the application may normally be submitted in Denmark. If the application can be submitted in Denmark, this can be done at the Service Centre of the Danish Agency for Labour Retention and International Recruitment. If the applicant lives outside the Greater Copenhagen area, he/she can also submit the application at the local police station.

On newtodenmark.dk you can find more information about who can submit an application in Denmark.

Which documents are required?

If the applicant is to study at a higher educational programme and is to pay tuition fees, or has been granted a Danish state scholarship (free tuition and covering of living expenses), the applicant must include:

- Documentation of paid fee
- Copy of passport (all pages including front page)

Please note that documents not written in Danish, English, German, Norwegian or Swedish must be submitted together with a certified translation in Danish or English.

If the applicant is to study at a higher educational programme and is not to pay tuition fees, and has not been granted a Danish state scholarship (free tuition and covering of living expenses), the applicant must include:

- Documentation of paid fee
- Copy of passport (all pages including the front page)
- Proof that the applicant can support him-/herself financially while in Denmark

If the applicant is to study at a preparatory higher educational programme or attend a basic or youth study programme, the applicant must include:

- Documentation of paid fee
- Copy of passport (all pages including front page)
- Proof that the applicant can support him-/herself financially while in Denmark

If you wish to study at a secondary education and the stay is not arranged by an exchange organization that has been approved by the EU, you must include either

- documentation that you have begun your secondary education in your home country and that your secondary education will be completed after your stay in Denmark. The documentation must be issued by your school in your home country and it must specify when you began your secondary education and when you are expected to complete it, or
- documentation that you will continue your secondary education in your home country. The documentation must be issued by a school in your home country and it must specify that you are guaranteed a place to continue your secondary education at this school after your stay in Denmark.

If you are under the age of 18, you must include a declaration signed by both your parents showing that they accept your stay in Denmark. If you are not staying at a boarding school, your parents must furthermore clearly state where and by whom you are living while in Denmark.

Please note that students at folk high schools do not need to include proof that they can support themselves during their stay, as food and lodging is normally included in the course fees.

Other documents required when submitting the application

The applicant must present his/her passport to the authorities for identification.

Does it cost anything to submit an application?

Yes, you will normally need to pay a fee in order to get the application processed by the Danish Agency for Labour Retention and International Recruitment. You can read more about the fees in section 0 of this form, or on www.newtodenmark.dk/fee where you can also see the current fees.

Biometric features required on residence cards

If you reside in Denmark or a country where Denmark has a diplomatic mission, you must appear in person to have your biometric features (digital facial image and fingerprints) recorded for use in your residence card. Your biometric features must be recorded in connection with the application being submitted. If you reside in a country where Denmark has a representation agreement with another country's diplomatic mission, you must appear in person and submit two facial images in connection with the application being submitted. Once you arrive in Denmark, your biometric features will be recorded. Read more about biometric residence cards on the last page of this form and at www.newtodenmark.dk/residencecard

If the applicant submits his/her application to a Danish diplomatic mission (embassy or consulate general)

he/she will normally have to pay a fee. The fee can vary in price. The individual diplomatic mission can also make further demands such as extra passport photos or duplicate copies of the application. We recommend that the applicant checks with the requirements on the website of the diplomatic mission in his/her country before the application is submitted.

For more information

More information about the regulations for Danish residence and work permits and how to fill out the application is available at www.newtodenmark.dk. You can also contact the Agency in writing, in person at the Service Centre or by calling the Study hotline on +45 35 30 87 50.

Application for a residence and work permit for students incl. PhD students

PART 1 – to be filled out by the applicant

0. Information about fees

From 1 January 2011 onwards, you will normally need to pay a fee if you submit an application for a residence permit, for an extension of a residence permit, or for a permanent residence permit in Denmark. The size of the fee depends on which type of application you submit. You can find the current fees on www.newtodenmark.dk/fee.

All persons who submit an application for residence and work permit for students must do the following in the order below:

1. Create a case order ID. Please note: You must state the case order ID in the field below.
2. Pay the fee.
3. Submit the application.

The fee covers the processing of your case. This means that the fee will not be refunded if your application is turned down. Furthermore, the fee will not be refunded if, during the processing of your case, you choose to withdraw your application. If you have not paid the fee your application will be rejected, which means that it will not be processed. If your application is rejected for any other reason, the fee will be refunded minus an administration fee.

How do I create a case order ID?

Anyone can create a case order ID on www.newtodenmark.dk/fee. You must clearly state the case order ID in the field below and when paying the fee.

How do I pay the fee?

You can pay the fee in several ways, such as from a Danish internet bank, in the bank or at the post office. On www.newtodenmark.dk/fee you can choose how you wish to pay, and you can see which information is required when paying the fee. Please note: The fee must be paid no later than at the same time the application is submitted. In most cases, this means that the fee will need to be paid before the application is submitted. Only a few Danish diplomatic missions will allow you to pay the fee when you submit your application. You cannot pay the fee directly to the Service Centre of the Danish Agency for Labour Retention and International Recruitment or to the Danish police.

Please include documentation that you have paid the fee, such as a receipt from a Danish internet bank or a receipt from a bank or post office.

0.1 Case order ID

Please state your case order ID. The case order ID you state below must be identical to the case order ID stated when paying the fee. Please include documentation that you have paid the fee. If you believe that you are exempt from paying the fee, please enter your case order ID and tick the box next to 'The applicant is exempt from paying the fee'.

Case order ID

0.2 Information required for refunding the fee (in case the fee is to be refunded)

Please give the information required for refunding the fee. The fee can be refunded by transfer to a Danish NEM account ('NEM-konto'), a Danish bank account, a foreign bank account, or in cash at a Danish diplomatic mission. Diplomatic missions can only repay fees in cash if the fee was originally paid there. Please state the name of the person to whom the refund should be paid (account holder/recipient), how you wish to receive the money, and any required information.

If the refund is to be paid to a foreign bank account, we recommend that you speak with your bank first to obtain the information necessary in order to receive a transfer from Denmark. In addition to the account information, you may also need to provide the bank's address.

Please note that for a period of 180 days, your fee cannot be returned to a bank account, if you originally paid the fee with Dankort or credit card. For that period of time the payment can only be returned to the same Dankort or credit card account. After 180 days, your fee can be returned to the bank account specified by you below.

6. About students at a preparatory higher educational programme or a basic or youth study programme

If you are to study at a preparatory higher educational programme or at a basic or youth study programme, you must include proof that you can support yourself financially while in Denmark. In practice, this means that you must document that you dispose of DKK 4,200 per month by including e.g. a bank statement in your own name or documentation for a grant or scholarship. See www.newtodenmark.dk for further information about the use of bank statements as documentation.

Please note that students at folk high schools do not need to include proof that they can support themselves during their stay, as food and lodging is normally included in the course fees.

7. Applicant's comments

PLEASE COMPLETE IN CAPITAL LETTERS

8. Sworn declarations – applicant

A. Sworn declaration of correctness

I solemnly swear that the information I have given in part 1 (section 1-8) of this application is correct and complete.

If the information is found to be false or incomplete, I am subject to the following penalties:

- Fine or imprisonment of up to two years
- I can be required by law to pay back the expenses incurred by the Danish state as a consequence of the false or incomplete information
- My residence permit can be revoked

B. Declaration of consent to allow authorities to gather necessary information

I consent to allowing the relevant authorities obtain and pass on information about my private affairs for the purpose of enabling them to process my application. Information can be obtained from or passed on to other Danish and foreign public authorities, including the police authorities.

Such information includes:

- Previous criminal proceedings against me
- My familial relations
- Verification that the documents submitted with my application are genuine

I also consent to allowing authorities contacted by the Danish Agency for Labour Retention and International Recruitment while processing my application permission to gather information about my private affairs for use in responding to the agency's enquiry.

C. Declaration that I consent to allowing information about me to be passed on to the educational institution

I consent to allowing the immigration authorities to pass on information about me, including personal information, to the educational institution, if necessary for processing this application. I also consent to allowing the immigration authorities to obtain information about me, including personal information, from the educational institution, if necessary for processing this application.

D. Notification that information can be passed on to Danish intelligence agencies and prosecuting authorities

The information and documents that you submit with your application can be passed on to Danish intelligence agencies and the Danish public prosecuting authority (Aliens Act section 45 a and section 45 c). This process can be initiated by Danish immigration authorities, Danish intelligence agencies or the Danish public prosecutor.

The prosecuting authority will be able to use the information to evaluate whether there are grounds for prosecuting you for crimes committed in Denmark or abroad, to identify victims of or witnesses to a specific crime, or to aid foreign law enforcement agencies.

E. Notification that relevant information will be passed on to local Danish authorities

Danish immigration authorities are permitted to give certain information to the municipality in which you settle if you receive a residence permit.

Such information includes:

- The grounds for issuing you a residence permit
- Exemptions to restrictions placed on your residence permit (if any)

The municipality will be informed if:

- Your residence permit is revoked or not extended
- Your residence permit is found to have expired
- Your residence permit is made permanent

F. Notification that Danish authorities have registered information about you and your affairs

The information you supply or have supplied in connection with your application for a residence permit will be registered in the Danish Agency for Labour Retention and International Recruitment's registers. The same holds true for any information you give in conjunction with an application to extend your residence permit.

If you receive a residence permit, it will be registered in the Central Person Register. The Central Person Register is a computerised register maintained by the Ministry of Economic Affairs and the Interior.

The information in the Danish Agency for Labour Retention and International Recruitment's registers and the Central Person Register will be used to answer questions relating to your residence in Denmark. Public administration authorities (record keeping), the police (record keeping and verification) and the Immigration Appeals Board (reviewing complaints) will have access to the information about you contained in the Danish Agency for Labour

Retention and International Recruitment's registers and the Central Person Register.

Other authorities or organisations will receive information about you from the Danish Agency for Labour Retention and International Recruitment's registers and the Central Person Register if they require the information to address questions relating to your residence in Denmark.

You are obligated to provide the information necessary for deciding whether you are eligible for a Danish residence permit. Failure to provide the information can result in a fine or up to four months of imprisonment, as well as placing your residence permit in jeopardy. You are entitled to access information about yourself in the Danish Agency for Labour Retention and International Recruitment's registers and the Central Person Register. Enquiries about this can be addressed to the Danish Agency for Labour Retention and International Recruitment, Njalsgade 72C, PO box 2000, DK-2300 Copenhagen S.

The fingerprints recorded for use on your residence card will be deleted from the The Danish Agency for Labour Retention and International Recruitment's registers no later than 90 days after your residence card has been issued or your application has been turned down.

G. Information regarding possible verification by the authorities of the information you have supplied

The Danish Agency for Labour Retention and International Recruitment may seek to verify the accuracy of the information you have given in this application. This may happen while the application is being processed or later, if you are granted a permit. If you are granted a permit and the Danish Agency for Labour Retention and International Recruitment finds that you no longer meet the requirements of your residence permit, your permit may be revoked. Verification may be conducted at random and is not necessarily an indication that the agency suspects you of providing false information, or of not meeting the requirements of your residence permit.

Verification may involve the following:

- Checking public registers, such as the Central Person Register
- Comparison of information contained in the Aliens Register or other of the Danish Agency for Labour Retention and International Recruitment or the Danish Immigration Service's registers with records held by the Central Office of Civil Registration (CPR Office), the Buildings and Housing Registry (BBR) or the income registry
- Contacting other authorities, such as municipalities
- Contacting third parties, such as employers or places of study
- Turning up in person at your residence, place of study or workplace

You may be asked to supply additional information as part of the verification process.

H. Information about possible consequences if you apply for a residence permit while in Denmark on a visa (short term)

If you are staying in Denmark on a visa (short term) and you submit an application for a residence permit in this country, you need to be aware that it may have the following consequences:

- You can become ineligible for a visa for five-years (Aliens Act section 4 c).
- If someone in Denmark has posted a financial guarantee for your visa, it can be collected by the Danish Immigration Service, which means the money will be forfeited to the state (Aliens Act section 4).

However, the abovementioned consequences do not apply in the following cases:

- If you are a child under 15 or a spouse applying for family reunification.
- If you apply for a residence permit in order to study.
- If you apply for a residence permit in order to participate in the cities of refuge program.
- If you apply for a residence permit on the grounds of work, and you meet the requirements to obtain a permit.
- If there are decisive humanitarian reasons for allowing you to remain eligible for a visa or the guarantee not to be forfeited.

These exceptions assume the reason for your application is genuine.

Did you remember everything?

If your application for a Danish residence permit is correctly filled out and contains the required documents, the Danish Agency for Labour Retention and International Recruitment can process your case faster.

It is therefore important that you make certain that part 1 of the forms is filled out correctly and that you have included the necessary documents before submitting your application.

We recommend using the checklist below to verify that the application is complete and correct.

Checklist – part 1

Before submitting the application, please ensure that you have included the following documents:

- Documentation of paid fee, such as such as a receipt from a Danish internet bank or a receipt from a bank or post office.
- Copy of passport (all pages including the front page).

If you are to study at a higher educational programme and are not to pay tuition fees, and have not been granted Danish state scholarship (free tuition and covering of living expenses), or if you are to study at a preparatory higher educational programme or at a basic or youth study programme, you must also include:

- Documentation that you can support yourself financially while in Denmark (e.g. a bank statement in your own name or documentation for a grant or scholarship).

It is important that you have

- answered all questions in part 1 (sections 0-7),
- signed and dated the application in section 9, and have

If you have a spouse and/or children who need to apply for a Danish residence permit as accompanying family member, please use form FA8: "Application for residence permit for a family member of a foreign national who is to work or study in Denmark". See newtodenmark.dk/forms.

Biometric features required on residence cards

If you submit your application in Denmark or in a country where Denmark has a diplomatic mission, you must appear in person to have your biometric features (digital facial image and fingerprints) recorded.

If you submit your application at the diplomatic mission of a country with which Denmark has a representation agreement, you must appear in person to submit two facial images. Upon arrival in Denmark, your biometric features (digital facial image and fingerprint) will be recorded.

If you send your application by post or fax or if it is submitted by a third-party such as a lawyer, you must appear in person to have your biometric features recorded within 14 days of the application being submitted. If you reside in a country where Denmark has a representation agreement with another country's diplomatic mission, you must appear in person to submit two facial images within 14 days of submitting your application. When you appear to have your biometric features recorded or to submit your facial images, please remember to bring a photocopy of the first three pages of your completed application form. This will allow the immigration authorities to match your biometric features with the application. Please note that the processing of your application will not begin until your biometric features are submitted.

Please bring your passport or other form of travel documentation when having your biometric features recorded or when submitting your facial images. In addition to your biometric features, your signature will also be recorded. Facial images and fingerprints are stored on a microchip embedded in the residence card.

Biometric features can be recorded at the Service Centre of the Danish Agency for Labour Retention and International Recruitment. If you live outside Greater Copenhagen, your biometric features can also be recorded at some police stations. A list of the police stations capable of recording biometric features can be found at www.newtodenmark.dk/residencecard. If you live abroad, the website of the Danish Ministry of Foreign Affairs contains a list of embassies and consulates, as well as Danish representation agreements with other countries' diplomatic missions (um.dk).

If you do not agree to have your biometric features recorded in connection with the application being submitted in Denmark or at a Danish diplomatic mission, your application will be rejected. If the application is submitted at another country's diplomatic mission with which Denmark has a representation agreement, and you do not submit two facial images, it will likewise be rejected. If you are not physically capable of providing fingerprints, you will not be required to do so.

Read more about residence cards and biometric features at www.newtodenmark.dk/residencecard.

If the application for a Danish residence permit is correctly filled out and contains the required documents, the Danish Agency for Labour Retention and International Recruitment can process the case faster.

It is therefore important that you make certain that part 2 of the form is filled out correctly before forwarding it to the applicant.

We recommend using the checklist below to verify that the application is complete and correct.

Checklist – the educational institution

Before the form is sent to the applicant, please ensure that the educational institution has

- answered all questions in part 2 (sections 10-14) and has
- signed and dated the application in section 15.

If the applicant is to attend a course at a folk high school or similar, it is also important that the head of the school has

- signed the declaration in section 13.
